GRAND CRU LES VELOURS

Vineyard planted in 1940

Les Velours means velvet in French. Here concentration and ripe fruit build a complex wine, deep and softly texturized palate.

Variety: Malbec

Terroir: La Consulta

Soils: Deep sand and silt. Later harvested.

Vineyard: Tomal ("ancient" in the Huarpe language)

Aging: 15 months in French oak barrels. 30% new.

WITH ITS GRAND CRUS, BODEGA TEHO PAYS TRIBUTE TO BURGUNDY, WHERE 1300 YEARS AGO PEOPLE STARTED TO DEFINE THE DIFFERENT "CLIMATS" OF THEIR TERROIR, DIFFERENCING AND CREATING A DEVELOPED MAP OF PARCELS THAT TODAY REPRESENT THE EMBLEMATIC AND WORLD-RENOWNED GRAND CRUS.

INSPIRED IN BURGUNDY, OUR OLD VINEYARD TOMAL IN LA CONSULTA, WE STUDIED THE DIFFERENT SOILS THAT COMPOSE THIS 4-HECTARE VINEYARD. YEAR AFTER YEAR WE CONTINUE TO LEARN AND UNDERSTAND THE INFLUENCE THAT EACH SOIL TYPE HAS INTO THE WINE. FOR THIS REASON, WE CREATED THREE DIFFERENT WINES FROM THREE DIFFERENT SOIL PROFILES WITHIN THE SAME VINEYARD. SAME VINIFICATIONS RESULT IN DIFFERENT STYLES OF WINE ACCORDING TO EACH PARTICULAR SOIL PROFILE.
